

Suzanne Keith lives in New Jersey and works in Tarrytown NY as a Senior Account Executive with a technology focus on security solutions, for a global specialty distributor of networking and communications equipment. She graduated from NYU with a BA degree in English Literature and moved on to an MS intensive at Mercy College in Organizational Leadership. She manages a busy household with three children, an 85 yr old uncle, a cat, a dog and a garden. The magical Sweet Pea faerie personae evolved from a dream in 1990. Sweet Pea began enchanting and delighting children of all ages with her lyrical and Earth-friendly message at birthday parties, wedding receptions, holiday parties, nursery & elementary school assemblies, classrooms, family picnics, summer camps and charity events. She has participated in women's empowerment groups, workshops, and ceremonies. She is a well-known and beloved fairy character at the Spoutwood Farm Fairie Festival in Glen Rock, PA. Past projects include inspiring the Faerie Movement, and recording "Faeries Are Gathering," a song on the "Faeries, Dreams and Other Friends" cd by Elaine Silver, Silverstream music. With her kin and dentist/acupuncturist, the Toothe Fairy aka Dr. Sharon Brackelmanns, she created a play, "Sweet Pea and the Toothe Fairy" which was performed throughout Morris County, NJ to promote dental health for children.

(Continued)

For 5 years, Sweet Pea and her friend, Kristin Pamperin aka Krystinia leFey, a local entrepreneur, fairy and tarot expert, lovingly distributed “The Faerie Important News” publication. Future goals include publishing “The Faerie Tarot” with Krystinia, and continuing the creation and development of The Faerie Realms projects.

